

Impact and Utilization of Competitive Examination Resources Thiruvalluvar University

Shanmugam, A.P. and Kathirvel, R.

drapshanmugamlibrarian@gmail.com

Abstract

The basic aim of this paper is to assess and impact of the utilization pattern of Competitive Examination Resources Thiruvalluvar University by the aspirants of competitive examinations. Survey method is applied and the Data collected from Thiruvalluvar University and constitution Colleges through a structured questionnaire, this paper attempted to classify the Thiruvalluvar University and its constitution Colleges. Analysis are carried out variable versus gender and the constitution wise, and found that majority of male aspirants are using the library more than female likewise the purpose of library visits and preferences of information are analysed. This study reveals that present generation aspirants of competitive examinations are approach university libraries in an effective way and the constitution college libraries, Thiruvalluvar University has more opportunity to shape the young minds.

Keywords: Examination resources, Thiruvalluvar University